Who are you?

I'm a spiritual being living a life of joy!

What are you passionate about?

I have several passions starting with living a life that is fully transparent. I am committed to being the best wife, mother, friend, and disciple of Christ that I can be. And...I love jewelry. I love to read and cook.

What are you up to in your life right now?

I am building a consulting practice in strategic thinking, marketing and facilitation. I've been very fortunate to work with an amazing mentor who is running a small but growing consulting firm. He has been supportive in many ways, giving me helpful advice and regular business.

What is your strongest calling or strength?

I have an enthusiasm for life that is reflected in all aspects of how I live my life. When I'm not enthusiastic about what I'm doing, I know it is time to evaluate what is going on around me and my role in the outcomes. I'm learning to be clearer in my requests about what's important to me and to extend that same respect to others.

How do you recharge your batteries or nourish yourself?

Cooking. One of these days I am going write a cookbook about beans! And, checking out of the busyness of life by spending a day reading or wandering through a museum (without wearing a watch!).

What are the most important take-aways you've had as a result of participating in Tiara?

I'm very much committed to my personal development, whether it is spiritual, emotion, intellectual or more recently, physical. Tiara helped me to be more reflective about myself as a successful and powerful woman with choices. Plus, I've met and connected with some exciting women who, like me, are finding their personal 'voices' and moving into paths that previously seemed out of reach.

What would you like to acknowledge yourself for? What are you grateful for?

I've fully accepted and am loving my life as an entrepreneur. I was a reluctant entrant into the ranks of entrepreneurs. Yet, I love the freedom and the opportunity to bring all of my experiences, skills and beliefs into creating solutions for my clients' challenges.

As a woman leader what are your unique strengths that help you and your team succeed?

My willingness to be transparent is one of my unique strengths. I've made mistakes and am willing to share what I've learned from those situations to help others. I have learned that "failure is feedback," and I am willing to share my failures (and successes) with my team so that we can be better.
